

Here is a list of typical songs Big Thanks Band might play at your wedding. We don't put together set lists for a wedding because we believe its important to play the right songs at the right time on the night depending on the crowd's mood, the demographic and other factors. We really know how to read a crowd and make the dance floor happen! We do however encourage you to tell us 5 likes (they can be artists or particular songs from the list) and 5 dislikes! That way we can cater to your tastes but still have the freedom to do what the Big Thanks Band does best!
